1) whether in this conference, in addition to our paper published in the proceedings is also published in the international journal?

The paper will be published in conference proceeding in Matec Web Conference which is indexed by Scopus (www.matec-conferences.org). Therefore the paper will not be published in other journal.

2) if a member of our team (Dr. Dwi Dinariana and Ir. Henni) will attend at the conference to follow as a presenter, what are the costs they should pay?

They need to pay as a listener if they would like to join the conference and the fee is USD220 per person (<http://iconcees.uthm.edu.my/register.html#fee>)
